

Attention FDA

5690 '00 MAR 22 AIO 37

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

I should Not be required by F.D.A to take any Medical Exam for Any Purpose at my Expense be it for Aspirin, Dental and or Hearing Aid.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

People in Rural Communities often times do Not have Hearing Specialists Available. It is not uncommon for a Buyer of Hearing Aids to downplay a Competitive hearing appliance that is Purchased via Mail Order.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment? No!!

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

I should be Allowed to purchase Any type of Hearing Device through What Ever source I choose
